

Muhammad Ali
Advocate Supreme Court of Pakistan

Mr. Muhammad Ali done LLB and Advocate Supreme Court of Pakistan, Having professional History of 27 Years, Worked as an apprentice with (late) Mirza Anwar Baig Advocate Supreme Court of Pakistan from 17th September, 1995 to 26th September, 1997, Enrolled as an Advocate on 1st of February, 1996, as an Advocate High Court on 22nd June, 1998, Enrolled as a Supreme Court lawyer on 4th of June, 2009, Appearing in Supreme Court of Pakistan on regular basis where he have conducted more than 400 cases, He was elevated as an Additional Judge of Lahore High Court, Lahore on 26th of November, 2016, and worked as a Judge till 12th of October, 2017. During the tenure he decided over 1800 cases including number of reported judgments, Current Position : Senior most partner in his law firm Agha Aziz Law Associates (Advocates and Consultants), Practicing regularly in Supreme Court of Pakistan and High Courts,.

In Professional Academic Achievements, He had the opportunity of conducting variety of cases in Supreme Court of Pakistan, including a landmark judgment of (Constitution Petition No. 50 of 2011) Fiaqat Hussain Versus Federation of Pakistan and others (PLD 2012 SC 224) pertaining to continuation of Community Schools all over Pakistan, the schools were being closed by the Federal Government after Eighteenth Amendment in the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, His exposure to such diversity of cases as a lawyer and as a Judge has helped him in refining his skills and learning. He had conducted large number of cases in various High Courts, It is to his credit that number of reported judgments published in Pakistan law journals from time to time.

Area of practice and consultancy covers Constitutional law, Civil law, Criminal law, Land Revenue and Family Law. In addition to working in higher Courts, He had conducted number of civil and criminal trials.

His Skill and Interests are Vast experience in skilfully drafting contracts, Highly proficient in the use and delivery of IT skills, Good communication skills, passing on legal .knowledge to new entrants' in the legal profession.